

Kate Yang

Kate is an emerging Industrial Designer at California College of the Arts. Her passion for creative work stems from observing and exploring nature. Through designing for waste reduction, she believes in working towards a more sustainable future.

San Francisco, CA

yangkate.com

ky_designtings

kateyang@cca.edu

Experience

Industrial design intern at Nanda Home | May-Aug 2021

- Conducted research, sketching and CAD modeling to execute aesthetics, form and shape explorations for UV lightboxes
- Participated in company logo design
- Collaborated with the CEO and other interns to discuss product logistics

Graphic Designer at Chien-Mou Printing & Design Co., LTD | 2021

- Designed elementary school yearbook cover with Procreate and Adobe Illustrator

Co-founder at Higo Art Shop | 2020-Present

- Co-founded an online art shop at Etsy to launch stickers and downloadable prints
- Designed shop's brand and advertised through Instagram, Tiktok, and Etsy

Affiliation

IDSA UIUC | 2021-present

- Expanding professional networks by engaging in Live talks and workshops

CCA TSA Vice President | 2020-2022

- Event Organizer of Taiwanese Student Association
- Ensured future plans are consistent and feasible

Alpha Rho Chi | 2019

- Pledged and built connections with industry professionals

Languages

English- fluent
Mandarin- fluent

Education

California College of the Art | 2018-2022

- BFA Industrial Design
- Minor in Ecological Practices

Otis College of Art and Design | 2017

Product Design & Live Drawing

De Anza College | 2015

Ceramics

Achievements

All College Honors Industrial Design Scholarship | 2021

Nominated as All College Honors

CCA Honors Program Final Enlist | 2019

Nominated by first-year program as final presenter at Hubbell building

Otis Summer of Art | 2017

Full-ride scholarship

Skills

Design

Sketching
Illustration
Branding
Graphic Design

Software

Adobe Suites
Figma
Solidworks
Keyshot
Procreate

Fabrication

Metalworking
Woodworking
Industrial Sewing
Clay sculpting
Weaving
Printmaking